

I believe that the proposal begins to address some of the issues in amateur radio today. The adjustment of the phone/CW bands is need prior to the ITU region 1+3 expansion at 40-meters, 7100-7200 kHz. I respectfully request that the Commissioners act promptly on the deletion of Test Element 1, the Morse code test and bring us into line with the rest of the world.